General Session Speakers

Mike Attwood was born in Leeds, England. He was saved by God's grace at the age of 21. He trained and served with New Tribes Mission and was involved in church planting in the Irish Republic under the auspices of CMML. He has been involved in itinerant Bible teaching and preaching throughout the US, Canada, and overseas. He is married to Ann Marie and they have 5 adult children. Currently they make their home in Springfield, Missouri, USA.

Nate Bramsen serves in Niger, Africa. His passion is to know Christ, and to make Him known among unreached people's (through ministry to kids), and to see today's youth become unconditional followers of Jesus Christ. His time is invested in international ministry (church planting/ youth ministry), along with itinerant speaking, weekly podcasts (www.theunfilteredword.org), and with ministries through ROCK International (www.rockintl.org).

Joe Reese was born and raised in Mississippi, and was born again in 1970. He was commended to full time work in 1983.

He has travelled extensively teaching the Word of God throughout Canada, USA, and other countries of the world. Joe and his wife Ann live in Deacon, Ontario, Canada.

Seminar Descriptions

Mike Attwood

Love His Appearing

We know a reward is available for those who love His appearing. What does it really mean to love His appearing? How will that affect our lives and what will it look like on a day-to-day basis? Brother Mike will help us make sure we don't miss out on this important reward from our soon returning Lord.

Joyce Barinowski

Love the Lost (W)

The apostle Paul, in the New Testament, speaks tenderly of those women that labored with Him in the Gospel. Learn unique and effective ways women can reach out with the love of God and the Gospel of Christ to a lost, and dying world.

Nate Bramsen

Love Young People

Many young people are growing up in a world where love is either absent or redefined and resembles lust more than love. Brother Nate has worked with young people on more than one continent and will share tips for engaging and loving today's youth. They are the next generation, if the Lord be not come.

Paul Bramsen

Love Your Muslim Neighbor

Due to cultural and religious differences, reaching your Muslim neighbors can be a challenge. Paul has experience conversing with Muslims as he spent much of his life in Senegal, West Africa. Paul will discuss how to speak the truth in love, while keeping cultural issues in mind.

Robert Brown

Love My Neighbor

The Second great commandment is to "Love thy neighbor as thyself" (Matt.22:39). Sadly, many of us hardly know our neighbors. We might be just like the man who asked, "Who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). There are ways to build a loving relationship with our neighbors, for the sake of the Gospel and the glory of Christ.

Bob Dadd (CMMQ)

Love the World (Missions)

To see the world through the eyes of God would include a genuine love for all people. The Lord Jesus said, "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields" (John 4:35). The field is the world, our mission field. Brother Bob Dadd will encourage us to have a global perspective and heart of love for the world.

Scott DeGroff

Love Not the World

We live in the world, but we are not to be of the world. What is the world system? How does it impact the Children of God? And, do we see it as the enemy it really is to a vital spiritual life of devotion to Christ? We need straight answers to these questions and practical insights into how to overcome the world.

Grady Dollar

Love the Little Children

Children today often grow up in homes devoid of love. We are living in a cruel and selfish world. The Lord Jesus had a heart for children, wanting them to come to Him. Brother Grady has extensive experience in Children's work and will help us learn how to effectively reach them with the love of God in Christ.

Jesse Gentile

Love the Lord with All of Your Mind

Many believers today have largely abandoned the academic realm to secular culture. Yet others speak of a life of the mind as a means of worship and a route to glorifying God. It is possible to follow Christ as a disciple and pursue advanced education; many do it and aid the Body of Christ in the process. There are pitfalls though. What should parents and leaders do for young people on this path? Does your assembly take an approach of aid, ambivalence, or alienation? What about topics like seminary, PhD studies, philosophy and the hard sciences? Jesse will draw on his unique experiences to address these questions and others.

Brian Gunning

Love the Assembly

Christ loved the Church and gave Himself for it and we are to be like Him. We will consider together why we should love the local assembly, what are essential features of a scriptural local assembly and how to be a part in building up, binding up and beautifying the body of Christ.

Marlene Gunning

Love your Family (W)

Marriage and the family is the major building block of society and it is severely under attack in today's world. The relationship of a husband and wife and their mutual love and respect are to represent the relationship of Christ and the church. Learn practical ways to reflect His love in our family and to the world.

Steve Price

Love for the Flock/Shepherd

The Lord Jesus is the great Shepherd and by the Holy Spirit He has raised up overseers to care for the flock which He has purchased. Steve will share insights from His own shepherding experience of learning to love doing the work of a shepherd and how God's people can learn to love their shepherds, too.

Love the Home

The home is meant to be a safe and secure place. Sadly, in our society many homes are dangerous places. The beauty of a well ordered Christian home and how delightful it can be serves as a great encouragement to the family. The foundation of such a home is indeed love.

Seminar Descriptions

Joe Reese

Love Service for the Lord

Many of us have served our old master, what we were in Adam for long enough. Now it is time to serve our new master, the Lord Jesus Christ with far greater zeal than we ever served sin. The work of the Lord is definitely work but when you love serving Him, it does not feel like work. Let us learn to love serving the best of masters.

Bruce Scott

Love for Israel

The nation of Israel is the subject of much hatred in the world today and even some Christians are now guilty of anti-Semitism. Why should we love the Jews? Is there a theological basis for such love? How can we practically show our love for them? Brother Bruce Scott, from the Friends of Israel, will help us with this critical issue of our day.

Nancy Trogdon

Love Hospitality (W)

The home is a wonderful place for ministry to both the Lord's people and the lost. It's a place where Christian love can be put on display. Sharing some practical tips on hospitality may be just what you need to start using your home for the cause of Christ. Open hearts and open homes makes open doors for Him.

Rex Trogdon

Love the Quiet Place

The Psalmist said, "My soul hath kept Thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly" (Ps. 119:167). The Bible is the only Book God has promised to honor and use to work in our lives. Learn to cultivate a deeper love for the study, meditation, enjoyment and obedience to His Word. It will draw us closer to Him.

Rex Trogdon

Love the Word

"Be still and know that I am God" (Ps. 47:1). In our busy, noisy world it is a challenge to be still and spend time with the Lord. It requires time and a place. If you don't take the time, it won't take place. Learn some practical ways to develop this daily quiet time of communion with God.
